

future working with talent

Hertfordshire
Music Service

Supporting young musicians

from

low-income backgrounds

We provide:

- Support and guidance
- Performance opportunities
- Workshops and masterclasses
- One-to-one expert mentoring
- Financial support up to £1,500

Find out more and apply at

WWW.FUTURETALENT.ORG/JOIN

About Future Talent

We support talented young musicians from all genres who come from low-income families. Our devoted Relationship Managers work closely with these young people to overcome hurdles that may be hindering their musical development.

Our programmes

We offer two specialised programmes for young musicians at different stages of their development, in partnership with Herfordshire Music. Additionally, we provide financial support for their music-related expenses.

Applications open at futuretalent.org.uk/join from February 14th 2024. Deadline for applications for academic year 2024/5: April 17th 2024.

Junior

Discovering Talent - for young musicians in the early stages of their musical development who demonstrate great potential.

Award: £500 per year

Ages: approx. 8-13

Level: Grades 1-5 (or equivalent)

Development

Nurturing talent - for musicians who show great musical potential and are passionate about developing their skills and confidence further.

Award: £1,000 per year

Ages: approx. 13-18

Level: Grades 6+ (or equivalent)

- Junior applicants will be selected from written applications alone.
- Development applicants will be shortlisted for a live audition in July 2024.

Eligibility

Our programmes are for young musicians who:

- Are under 18 years of age as of 1 September 2024.
- Have been permanently residing in the UK for a minimum of 3 years.
- Have a household income totalling no more than £35,000 per annum*.

*Extenuating circumstances are considered

Our named awards

Young musicians who apply to Future Talent can also request to be considered for one of our named awards or bursaries.

teamArchie Award for Brass

In partnership with teamArchie, we are thrilled to offer two annual awards for gifted young brass players.

Award: £2,000

Ages: 16-18

Made possible by:
teamArchie

Harvey Parker Award for Woodwind

In memory of Harvey Parker, this award supports gifted young Woodwind players.

Award: £2,000

Ages: 16-18

Made possible by:
3812 Gallery

Future Talent Indian Classical Award

In partnership with SAA-uk, we are proud to offer an annual award for Indian Classical Musicians.

Award: £2,000

Programme:

Development

Partner: SAA-UK

VOCES8/Future Talent Award for Choral Singing

This joint initiative supports eight singers under 18 and provides the award holders with a place on the VOCES8 Summer School.

Ages: 15-18

Partner: VOCES8

National Children's Choir/Future Talent Award for Singing

This joint initiative supports three singers at an earlier stage of development (aged 9-14) with a full bursary at the NCCGB's two annual Residentials.

Ages: 9-14

Partner: NCCGB

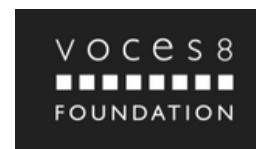

Coombs Scholarship

In memory of Lucy Coombs, this prestigious scholarship supports one exceptional musician preparing to launch their career or further education in music.

Award: £2,000

Ages: 16-18

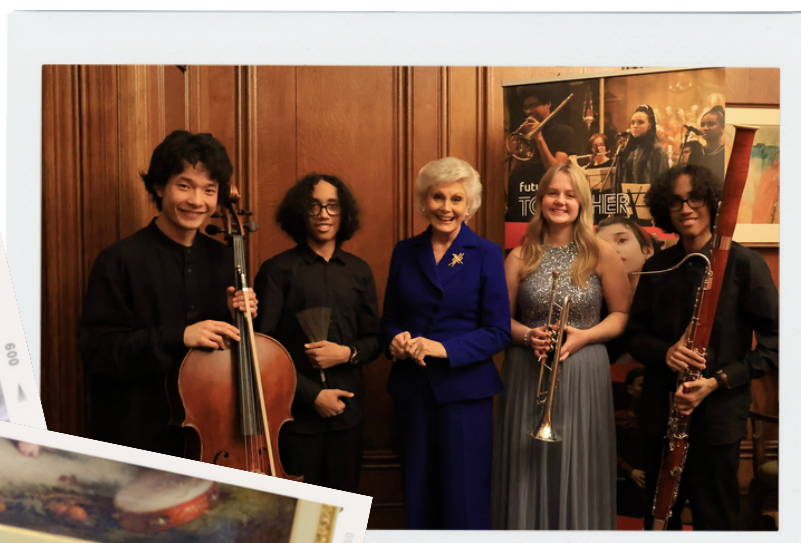

Named award partners:

Equity & inclusion at Future Talent:

At Future Talent, we are committed to ensuring equity of opportunity for all young musicians from low income backgrounds, irrespective of race, gender, disability, belief or sexual orientation. We work with our partners to remove the barriers young people face to inclusion and develop a culture in which all those connected to the charity feel proud of their identity and ability to participate fully in Future Talent's programmes.

Our young musicians in action:

Contact us:

Future Talent

Chester House CH3.24, 1-3 Brixton Road,
Kennington Park, London SW9 6DE •
futuretalent.org • 020 8037 0272 •
office@futuretalent.org

Registered charity number 1183804

Scan to apply:

